

¡Vamos al Perú!

(We're going to Peru together!)

2010 Delegation
July 1-14

Iglesia Luterana Evangélica Peruana

Imagine traveling with our delegation to ten different Lutheran congregations during nine days in Peru: in urban Lima, in seaside Huacho, in the Andean city of Cusco...

At first glance, you'll notice that all the congregations are small and struggling with poverty. But take a few minutes to get to know the people and you will see their greatest resource: hope and vision.

- ❖ One church hopes to build a library for the community, and eventually a school.
- ❖ Another dreams of building a medical clinic in its community.
- ❖ Youth ministries build on the enthusiasm of the younger generations.

And step by step, each congregation is making its vision a reality. Each congregation is actively working to address the pressing social issues within their greater community.

- ❖ Hot meals are prepared for children and parents.
- ❖ After-school tutoring helps kids in their classwork.
- ❖ Day care programs are provided to working parents.
- ❖ Women's groups help women develop hand-craft skills to earn money.

Former ILEP President Pedro Bullón says, the Peruvian Lutheran church is committed to demonstrating its faith by creating spaces of hope in their communities.
