

¡Vamos al Perú!

(We're going to Peru together!)

2010 Delegation
July 1-14

Iglesia Luterana Evangélica Peruana

THE POWER OF ONE

Every congregation should have a beloved person like David (Daveéd). He is one of those gentle giants who touch people's lives through his enthusiasm for life.

David came to know of Christ's love for him through missionaries to Peru many years ago. We often hear stories of the work missionaries do, but we seldom get to meet the people whose lives they touch.

David still gives thanks for those missionaries, and he has spent his life sharing the love and faith that he received from them. Although not a young person himself, he works with the youth in his congregation. He is a friend, a song leader, and a witness to the faith.

Peruvian pastors and lay leaders speak of how they came to know of Christ's love through David. He is a reminder of how God uses each of us, in our own special way, to show Christ's love to others.

As our group moved from place to place in Peru, David traveled with us to guide and inform us about the people of the country and the church. We don't have to go to Peru to find a story such as this. It happens right here in our midst. David in Peru reminds us how we are all brothers and sisters in Christ, called to the same mission of sharing God's love for all people.
