

ELCJHL Libraries Project

The schools of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land

The La Crosse Area Synod voted in June to accept the Middle East Subcommittee Resolution to designate one month for a special offering to support the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL) Libraries Project and to ask congregations to prayerfully consider various means of participation through worship, education and special offerings directed to that effort.

Pastor Elly McHan, a member of the La Crosse Area Synod, received her first call in 2010 as Pastor and Communications Assistant in Jerusalem. Since the schools have few or no libraries Elly has been instrumental in this project. We can support this project by either buying a book(s) to donate or by giving a donation for them to buy books.

Wartburg College is aiding this project by mailing the books or sending them with people going on Holy Land tours. You can drop off appropriate books in the "Library Project Box" in the entrance hall or order books from www.amazon.com indicating the order is for the ELCJHL Libraries project. Use the following mailing address:
