

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Come and See

Contact the ELCJHL (administration@elcjh.org) to come and visit our ministries. Stay at one of our Lutheran guesthouses in Jerusalem, Beit Jala or Bethlehem. We will be happy to facilitate your visit and make references to other appropriate contacts. Although many believe travel here to be unsafe, this is often exaggerated. Please contact us for the latest information.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land

Keeping the Faith in the Holy Land

"Here in our Lutheran school, from the wounds of Palestine, a new generation has risen, to work, to live, to love, and to be loved...."

But let us not give up hope. Justice will prevail, and freedom will come. All we have to do is to stand together, to keep the candle of hope burning, and to work and struggle for our freedom."
